Mirna: just got your email Mirna: please explain to me for legal reasons me: makes sense, I just sent it me: let me know if you have advice me: ok Mirna: how what you're doing concretely affects tunisia and within what time range you think change will be affected me: it's already been effected due to anon operations that took down/replaced gov't websites at the beginning of the revolt me: we have since prepared and distributed guides to safety in confrontation and internet security through Anon's Tunisian participants and my own North African connections in Paris me: as well as other methods me: my column for al-Jazeera will explain further me: it will appear in next 24 hours, I think me: today we replaced two more Tunisian websites with messages to the people me: now most people in the capitol are aware of our assistance me: assistance will expand in the next week me: as Project PM helps to organize local leaders into entities that will be capable of promoting civic life and ensuring liberty me: we are partnering with other organizations along the way me: and otherwise bringing in new recruits me: I personally have a list of Tunisians that I'm working with me: Jonathan Kundra has another with Tunisians and Algerians me: these are kept offline and secure me: we've distributed two guides already and the third will be done soon me: tomorrow, Algerians will march for liberty me: and in a few minutes - two, I think - we will launch OpAlgeria me: by taking down and defacing Algerian government websites with new messages of support me: I'll send you the op-ed noow Mirna: wow
Mirna: awesome me: also I'm now working with PLF me: http://plf777.limewebs.com/opscommand.html me: People's Liberation Front me: old-school hackers me: they're letting me advise them on targets, etc me: basically I partly run Anon now me: and tonight me: Michael Hastings will be on Bill Maher me: and will talk about OpTunisia me: between that and al-JAzeera, we will have hundreds of new recruits this weekend me: all of whom will be organized under PM to expand attacks against Algerian government me: and provide continued assistance to North Africans as the dominoes start to fall me: a lot of this will take time me: Tunisia was easy Mirna: lf

Mirna: plf
Mirna: thats great!
